SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

We seniors began the fall semester with an enrollment of one hundred and seven students. A few of our members withdrew from school and others will receive their diplomas at the end of the summer session. The three classes chose Bernice Smith, Keevis Orr, Sue Thacker, Donald Green, Glenda Bennett, Truman Gilliam, Jerry Dean, Phyllis DePriest, and Jean Hudgins as homeroom officers. From this group the following were chosen to represent the class as a whole: Jerry Dean, President; Truman Gilliam, Vice-President; and Glenda Bennett, Secretary-Treasurer.

Senior Dramatists

Present an Early Comedy of Jay Tobias "Meet Uncle Sally"

"Meet Uncle Sally" was directed by Mr. Bernard Farmer and starred twelve Seniors. Dina Lee Mullins was Sally, the young college student posing as the rich Uncle Willie. This amusing situation was planned by two members of Uncle Willie's family who were played by Eugene Coomer and Leota Stallard. Darrell McDilda, playing the real uncle, arrived and helped clear up the situation which had offered many hilarious incidents. Others in the cast were Nancy Bolling, Billie Davis, Joan Roberson, Phyllis Murray, Buford Beverly, Truman Gilliam, Robert Powers, and Jim Summitt. This play, presented December 3rd and 4th, was given by special arrangement with Baker's Plays.

OFFICERS

Orpha Dowdy, Charles Cain, and Sharon Hart.

After three years at Kelly High School, the Junior personalities have become a part of our school. The class has had a wonderful time working with the Seniors and are in position to take over the Senior responsibilities next year.

During the year of 1958-59 the Junior Class selected Sharon Hart as its president; Orpha Dowdy as its vice-president; and Charles Cain as its treasurer.

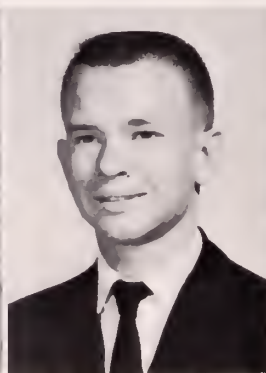

The climaxing achievement of the school year is the spring formal, the Prom, presented by the Juniors to the graduating Seniors. They worked hard together and came out on top.

Freshmen

This school year, there were seven sections of freshmen. Linda Maples, Louella Richardson, Harriet Jessee, Carl Dingus, Craig Slemp, and Delmar Gardner were selected to represent these sections on the student council.

As freshmen, these students experienced their first high school classes. They have worked harder and are ready to transfer their classroom knowledge to the coming year when they will be our sophomores.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade came to us this year from Wise Elementary, Dorchester, and West Norton schools. Chosen as class presidents for the seven sections were Sue Adkins, Juanita Hall, Billie Ison, Richard Gardner, Pamela Evans, Johnny Roberts, and Douglas Horne.

They have found that classes and activities are very different here from those to which they were accustomed; however, they have done well and are ready for high school next year.

Student Council

The purpose of the Student Cooperative Association is that of creating a feeling of fellowship between the teachers and the student body. It also works in developing self-government and serves as a unifying agency in student activities. This year it has strived to promote good sportsmanship and good school spirit, and to improve the ethical character of the students. The officers for this school year are these: Joan Roberson, President; Larry Arnold, Vice-President; Joyce Bellamy, Secretary; and Eugene Coomer, Treasurer.

F T A

Officers: Jim Summitt, Joe Smiddy, Robert Powers, Bonnie Mullins, Patsy Miller, Geraldine Hillman, and Nancy Bolling, President.

The L. F. Addington Chapter of the Future Teachers of America was organized in the latter part of the school year of 1957-58 under the guidance of Mr. A. E. Stanley. Beginning with a membership of fifteen, it has now increased to a membership of twenty-five.

The club has carried out several projects, the most successful of which has been the selling of apples at the home-football games. In addition to this the members have substituted for teachers when it was necessary for the teachers to be away from their classes.

The F.T.A. High School Club seeks to enable its members to study and to identify the qualities, traits, and aptitudes which are basic for successful teaching. It seeks to enable the profession to develop selective recruitment programs, to offer potential teachers appropriate experience, and to achieve and maintain a balanced supply of qualified teachers.

Hi-Y

This 1958-59 school year marked the beginning of two separate clubs--the Hi-Y and the Tri-Hi-Y which have a membership of 12 for the Hi-Y and 51 for the Tri-Hi-Y. The purpose of these clubs to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school, home, and community high standards of Christian character has been fulfilled. This year the clubs have given devotionals, posted a thought for the week, conducted assembly programs, led the blessings in the cafeteria, and co-sponsored parties.

Future Homemakers of America

During the fall and spring semesters of 1958-'59 the F.H.A. has been one of the busiest organizations at Kelly High School. They began the year with a very successful hat show in which they emphasized the hazards in the home. At their Mother-Daughter dinner, they elected Mrs. Harvey Smith as Chapter Mother; and during the football season members of the club sold baked potatoes and worked with the S.C.A. in planning and serving refreshments for the football party. In the future the club plans to organize a Wise County federation of the F.H.A. in which several Wise County schools will participate.

D. E. and V. O. T. Departments

The Distributive Education and Vocational Office Training departments consist of students who attend classes half a day and hold part time jobs in the various business offices and stores during the other half. This year there were twelve members in D.E. and thirteen in V.O.T., most of whom held part time positions in Wise. This practical application of selling and office training, learned in classroom, enables these students to fill full time business positions after high school graduation. Pictured above are Distributive Education students, Bill Bradley, John Shook, George Gardner, Mr. William Bowden, instructor, Darrell McDilda, Judy Stallard, Keevis Orr, Sue Thacker, Hagan Dean, Carole Conly, Darrell Brickey, Gary Williams, and Janis Perkins (not shown). Heab and Roy converge on Robert Raines with help from Hillman and Salyers in the Norton game.

Raines cornered by five Indians.

The J. J. Kelly Indians had their ups and downs in a four win--five loss season. The Indians traveled down to Norton and lost a great defensive game 6-0. The next two weeks were good ones in which they won from Pound 31-13 and topped Pennington Gap 18-6. However, when they went to Appalachia, they were beaten 33-0 in a one-sided game. Again the next week, the Indians fell in defeat before Big Stone 14-12. The following week they took Coeburn 7-6 in a good game. Then the Gate City Blue Devils scalped them 63-6 in a run-away at Gate City. They then came back and took East Stone 26-14 in the Homecoming game. The final contest was a heartbreaking loss to Clintwood--6-0--their final 6 point lead being scored in the last fifty seconds of a well-played game. The outlook for the coming year is optimistic since the team will lose only four of its twenty-four lettermen and will have several good boys coming on.
